

SHAUN OF THE DEAD LIVE!

KNOW MORE? SAY MORE!

For those who are unsure of audience participation, it's exactly what it says, the audience (YOU) are invited to participate.

GOODY BAGS full of props can be purchased at the door and it's money well spent!

How will it work on the night?

This Audience Participation logo (the image at the top of this page) will appear on the video screens above the stage. These screens display extra detail for the show, like images of streets (backdrops) and lyrics to songs (so you don't need to worry about not knowing the words) as well the Audience Participation logo.

When you see the Audience Participation logo it means "TAKE PART"! If you throw yourself into it you'll have more fun and feel like you're part of the show.

So what do I do exactly?

When you see this image on the screen...

...we need you to...

Do your best ZOMBIE MOAN!

SHAUN OF THE DEAD LIVE!

Blue Wrath in the film doesn't have words, this stage production does and it's new, so it's up to you if you want to join in.

During the Foree Electric shop scene, mimic the shop assistants by chewing your gum.

Please dispose of your gum appropriately

Shout "Hello Maaate" into your phone when either Ed or Noel (Foree Electrical Assistant) get a mobile phone call.

When Chicago's "If You Leaf Me Now" plays, throw the leaves from your goody bag as Liz sings the first line.

When Shaun & Ed start throwing the records you start throwing yours! See if you can hit "Mary" or "Hulk" with it.

The ever important vinyl is there for you to throw. Don't worry, they won't hurt, we've tested them.

SCRIPT

Lines are an intrinsic part of the show, and you can join in. Our adaptation of the film to stage has all the famous lines and if you know more, say more! We encourage it!

When Shaun is in Liz's flat, the lines are as follows:

David: "Basically I think your Nine lives are up!"

Shaun & AUDIENCE: "GET FUCKED FOUR-EYES!"

When Shaun is in the pub after Liz has dumped him, the juke box springs to life. The lines are:

Ed: "Who the hell put this on?"

Shaun & AUDIENCE: "It's on random!"

When Shaun has woken with a hangover from the party, he wakes Ed, the lines are:

Shaun: "Do you want anything from the shop?"

Ed & AUDIENCE: "CORNETTO!"

When Shaun is in Liz's flat the second time to rescue her, the lines are as follows:

David: *"But there were only two of them a minute ago and now how many are there?"*

Dianne & AUDIENCE: "LOTS!"

So now you're getting in the mood, we can start to really get some of you into the action!

Some of you will have been chosen prior to the show to take part in the "walk-through" ZOMBIE Crowd. You will have been selected by one of our ZOMBIES. And this means they may come and find you and bring you up out of your seat to start moving with the others. Try to make sure you get tickets for the stalls and seating close to the aisles to get a chance to do this.

SHAUN OF THE DEAD LIVE!

During the music you are free to do your best air guitar. Feel free to bash a nearby Zombie with it if you get the chance.

A popular belief is that Alabama Vest, an African-American in Macon, Georgia was the one who invented the kazoo around 1840. You can join in on any songs if you don't want to sing, in particular the end.

As with bashing any Zombies over the head with your air guitar, if you see anyone participating in this fashion (yawning) feel free to bash them with your air guitar too.

The most important thing is to enjoy the night together. We all know that it's a sure fire winner dressing up and participating. We want you to have the best value for money when it comes to stage shows. Let's face it Live theatre has been priced outside of a lot of people's wallets nowadays and we trust that our little show will make you come back for more.

Remember the more you do the more you'll get from the night. Hopefully you'll enjoy it enough to tell your friends and keep us touring.
